Dear All

Christmas is upon us once again! There will be a lot of busyness over the next month – shopping, buying presents, parties, carol services, nativity plays and the list goes on.

God wants us to celebrate. 'My soul magnifies the Lord' sings Mary; 'No need to be afraid, see, I am bringing you wonderful news of immeasurable joy for all people' says the angel. Shepherds go on their way, praising God. Wise men offer their gifts in worship, over joyed to find the Christ-child. Simeon and Anna give praise when Jesus is brought to the temple because their hopes and prayers concerning the coming Messiah are answered.

Over the years millions have rejoiced, celebrating what God has done for them. They, like us, have lived far from perfect lives. Their service has been flawed, their faith weak, their love partial and commitment compromised, but they offered their discipleship knowing that God values it because he values them. God does not expect us to be faultless, thank goodness, he simply asks that we come to him and respond as best we can to his love. That's good news and a good reason to celebrate.

Whatever you plan to do over this festive period, you will receive a very warm welcome at any of our services outlined in Outlook. Don't forget, the churches are always open – you may simply wish to go and be still for a moment at this hectic time. That's fine.

Wherever you go, whoever you see, may you enjoy this time of celebration – Emmanuel – God with us.

*God of joy,
put a song in my mouth,
a smile on my lips,
laughter in my eyes
and celebration in my heart,
this and every day.*

Amen.

Christmas blessings to you all.
